Benefits of using Microsoft Teams calling

Protects your privacy

- Your personal phone number is private information that should not be shared with just anyone. You can keep your number private using Microsoft Teams calling and avoid unwanted calls and texts.

Sets Boundaries

- As a teacher, it is important to set boundaries between your personal and professional life. You can keep your work and personal life separate by using Microsoft Teams calling.

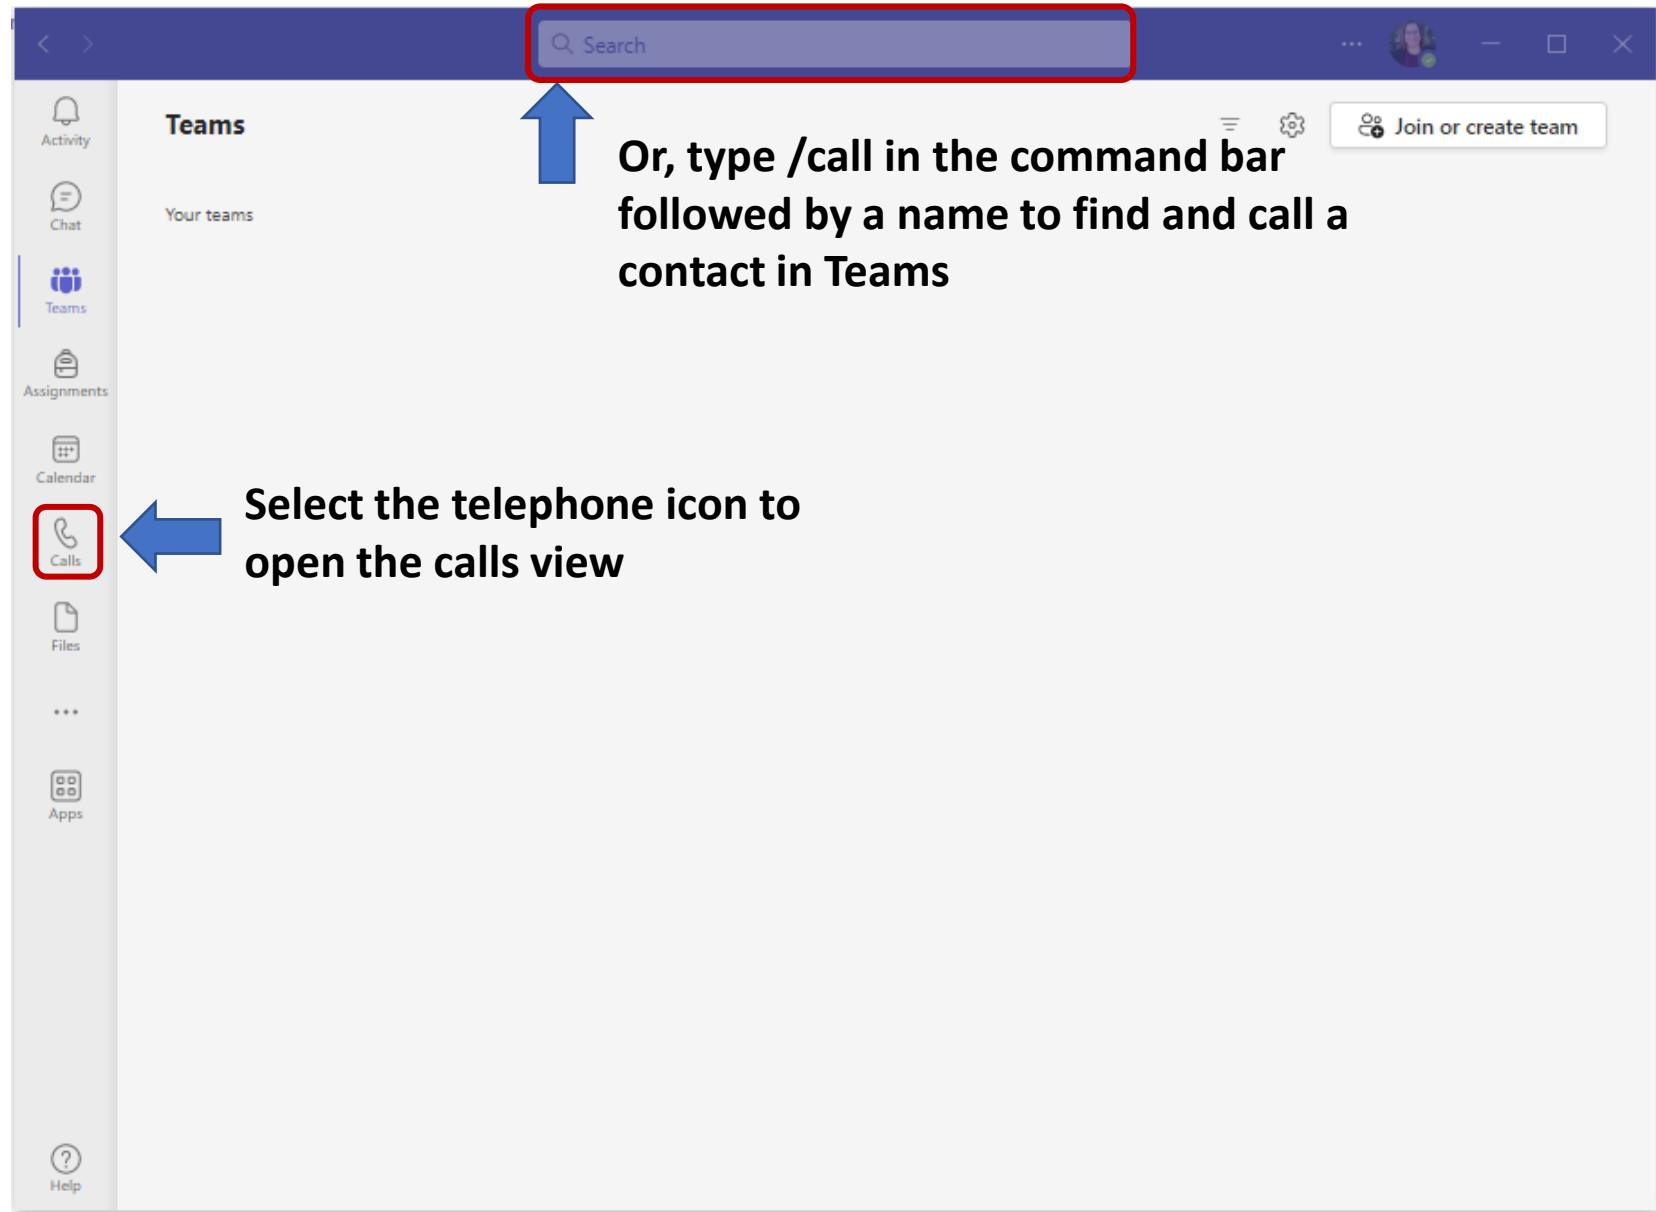

Is easy to use

- Microsoft Teams calling is easy to use, so you can quickly and easily connect with students, and colleagues.

Is available on all devices

- Microsoft Teams calling is available on all devices, so you can make and receive calls from your computer, laptop, tablet, or phone.
